SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Annual Veterans Dinner Planned for July 4th

The annual Independence Day Dinner, celebrating the lives of U.S. veterans, will be held at the Seven Feather Convention Center on Thursday, July 4, 2002, beginning at 6:00 pm.

The dinner is free to all veterans and their guest. There will be entertainment provided throughout the evening, such as musical groups and a stage show. Veterans are encouraged to bring their own wartime stories and experiences and to take the microphone and share with everyone. If you wish to enter the veteran's talent contest, come prepared to entertain. The winner of the talent contest will receive a nice prize.

Prizes to be given away during the evening include cash drawings and other merchandise.

Tribal veterans are encouraged to attend this patriotic dinner. For reservations call 1-800-879-6709 no later than June 28, 2002. Reservations will be limited to two persons per party.

Seven Feathers Garage Sale

The 2nd Annual Seven Feathers Garage Sale will be held on Saturday, June 22 and Sunday, June 23. On Saturday, between 8 am and noon, tribal members will have first opportunity to view items such as furniture, linens, dishes and other miscellaneous items that are no longer utilized for tribal businesses. The sale will be opened up to the public on Saturday at noon, and on Sunday from 8 am to 3 pm.

The sale will be located at the Canyon Cubbyholes, behind the Canyonville Burger King. For more information, call Seven Feathers Resort at 1-800-548-841.

Picnic Lunch scheduled for Tribal Elders

The Human Services Program is planning a luncheon for tribal elders on June 26, 2002. The Cow Creek Tribal Elders will be meeting with other tribal elders from the Burns Paiute, as well as the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians tribes at Bare Park, located on the K-Bar Ranch. The luncheon is one of several events planned for tribal elders this year. For more information about the events for that day, please call Rhonda Malone at 1-800-929-8229, extension 5513.
