Huckleberry Gathering

The Tribal Cultural Committee has planned an informal gathering for the purpose of enjoying and honoring the annual huckleberry crop on Saturday, September 5, 1998, (noonish). All Tribal families and friends are invited to a semi-potluck (meat & drinks provided) picnic for storytelling, berry blessing and berry picking at the huckleberry patch.

Look for Tom Rondeau, Sr., Wallace "Buster" Rondeau, and Jack "Tooter" Ansures when you reach the Rogue-Umpqua divide on the "30 (Crooked Creek) Road" from the Jackson Creek Road from the South Umpqua Highway east of Tiller.
