The Siletz Agency of the Bureau of Indian Affairs will be assisting in the Tribal Election. The election shall be by secret ballot.

Ballot packets, including instructions, will be mailed out to registered voters of the tribe from the Siletz Agency no later than July 11, 1994. If you are a registered voter and do not receive a ballot, you must contact the Tribal Office at 1-800-929-8229 or 1-503-672-9405. Ballots must be returned to the Siletz Agency no later than 4:00 p.m. August 12, 1994. The Election Meeting will be held at 1:00 p.m. on August 14, 1994, at the I.W.A. Hall, 1523 Vine Street, Roseburg, Oregon.

THE ABOVE ALERT ON REGISTRATION/NOMINATIONS CONSTITUTE THE FORMAL NOTICE AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE TRIBAL ELECTION ORDINANCE WHICH WAS DEVELOPED IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE TRIBAL CONSTITUTION AND REQUIRES AT LEAST A 30 DAY NOTICE.

When you receive your ballot, mark it right away and mail it back. That way you will be sure that your vote gets counted.

CLINTON SIGNS EXECUTIVE ORDERS

The recent signing of two Executive Orders by President Clinton gives Indians the right to use eagle feathers in religious ceremonies, and orders all federal agencies to recognize tribal governments and to consult with them when issuing new policies affecting them. Tribal leaders have asked for the Presidents support in sacred site protection, and in their right to develop economic bases through gambling.

NEW R.V. PARK OPENS

An R.V. Park has been developed on the north end of the Evergreen property and has opened for business on as of June 14. It has 37 spaces, all of which are full service with water, sewer, and electricity. The area is beautifully landscaped and well lit.

MONTEAU APPOINTED

Harold Monteau, a Chippewa Cree from Montana, has been appointed by President Clinton to chair the Nation Indian Gaming Commission. Monteau, an attorney, is the first Indian to hold a high level regulatory position. His appointment came after strong support from the National Congress of American Indians for an Indian chairman. Confirmation of the appointment is expected to take place within the next few weeks.

GAIASHKIBOS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

On Saturday, June 18th, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) President, Gaiashkibos, announced his candidacy for State Senator in Wisconsin. Gaiashkibos is chairman of the Lac Courte Oreille Chippewa Tribe of Wisconsin.
